Anglican
Savings and Development Fund

A flexible and cost effective alternative to traditional transaction accounts

The Anglican Savings and Development Fund (ASDF) is an activity of Newcastle Anglican. We provide a range of savings, investment and lending products and services to the Parishes, Agencies and Schools of the Diocese.

Our members receive competitive interest rates and all funds are invested according to the ethical investment guidelines of the Anglican Church of Australia.

We differ from other financial institutions in where our money goes. Through the support of our members, the ASDF is able to assist the missional initiatives of the Diocese, helping the religious, educational and charitable works of our Anglican community.

ACCESS ACCOUNT

The Access Account is a day to day transaction account which offers a competitive interest rate with online banking facilities and no fees or charges.

The Access Account may be opened with as little as $100. With the convenience of a deposit book, the account also provides for direct debit of external bank accounts for the collection of fees or planned giving, for example. There is no limit on the amount or volume of transactions processed through the account.

A simple, fee free day to day transaction account with interest paid six monthly.

KEY FEATURES AND BENEFITS

- Competitive interest paid six monthly and calculated on daily balance
- No fees, charges or limits on number of transactions processed
- Electronic access to funds via ASDF Online with bill payment options
- Deposit books supplied
- Direct debit and direct credit from external bank accounts available to assist with collections

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Access and usage of all information collected by the Anglican Savings and Development Fund is governed by our Privacy Policy. Full details of this policy are available on our website. If you are a signatory to an investment we collect and use your information to substantiate your identity and enable us to provide and manage that investment. If you are an acceptable certifier we may also use your information to substantiate the signatory's identity. We may also use your information to provide you with details about other products provided by the Anglican Savings and Development Fund unless you explicitly instruct us in writing not to do so. We do not provide your information to any other organisation without your consent, other than to those organisations that provide administrative or other operational services to the Anglican Savings and Development Fund.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Effective 1 November 2025

General

1 All investments are made with and will be administered by The Anglican Savings & Development Fund (ASDF), 87 Toronto Road, Booragul NSW 2284.

2 The ASDF is not prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA). Therefore, an investor in the ASDF will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959.

3. Investments in the ASDF are intended to be a means for investors to support the charitable purposes of the Fund. Neither the Trustees of Church Property, nor the ASDF nor its products, nor its promotional material and offer documents have been examined or approved by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC).

4. By law ASIC requires that all Religious and Charitable Development Funds, such as the ASDF, advise that investors may be unable to get some or all of their money back when the investor expects or at all, and the investment is not comparable to investments with banks, finance companies or fund managers.

5. All profits derived from the activities of the ASDF are used for the wider educational, charitable and religious work of the Anglican Church in the Diocese of Newcastle.

6. Investments are made within the ethical investment guidelines established by the Diocese. In keeping with the educational, religious and charitable purposes of the Diocese, investments are also used to make loans to parishes, schools and other Anglican entities of the Diocese.

7. The minimum acceptable initial investment and minimum balance to be maintained at all times depends on the type of account opened.

8. The ASDF reserves the right to repay any or all investments (including interest) up to the day prior to the date of the repayment by giving you one (1) calendar months' notice of its intention to repay.

9. Investments are NOT TRANSFERABLE. Where a change of ownership is requested, the ASDF will consider a request to invest the funds again in the new name.

10. The ASDF reserves the right to refuse any initial investment without providing a reason for the refusal.

11. Investments can only be made by a negotiable instrument such as a cheque or fund transfer. Cash investments will not be accepted.

12. Additional investments can be lodged at any time except where funds are held in a Term Investment Account.

13. You can arrange for interest due on an investment to be added to the amount of your investment or transferred to your nominated bank account.

Anglican Savings and Development Fund

14. Interest is calculated on a daily basis from the date of receipt of monies by the ASDF, provided that the relevant investment is received before 2pm on that day. When an investment is closed, interest will be calculated to the day prior to the date of repayment and then paid in full.

15. Where the ASDF Online service is not used an emailed request from at least two account signatories is required to transfer funds.

16. Where the ASDF Online service is not used, the ASDF will repay an investment by electronic funds transfer on the day that repayment of the investment is requested, provided the ASDF receives the request by 10.30am on that day.

17. You agree to fully indemnify the ASDF against all loss suffered by the ASDF as a result of your failure to observe these terms and conditions, or as a result of the ASDF acting on your instructions.

18. The ASDF is entitled to change or add to these terms and conditions at any time by providing you with written notice. If you are provided with such notice, you will be taken to have accepted the new terms and conditions in respect of all of your investments if you maintain your investments with ASDF.

19. By completing this application form, you agree to the ASDF collecting and using the personal information you provide to us, to enable us to provide you with:

19.1 the services you have requested;
19.2 information about your investment(s);
19.3 general information;
19.4 information about the ASDF and the Diocese; and
19.5 information as required by law.

Terms and conditions applying to the Access Account

20. Interest will be calculated on daily balances and paid six monthly at 30 June and 31 December and upon closure of the account.

21. Interest will be reinvested or paid by direct transfer if you have selected this payment method.

22. The ASDF is entitled to vary the interest rate from time to time. Varied interest rates will be posted on the ASDF website at www.asdf.org.au. Investors will not receive personal notification of varied interest rates.
