

Standing Against Family and Domestic Violence

Anyone can be a victim of family and domestic violence – children, women and men. Victims of family and domestic violence belong to all sections of our society. In response to this tragic reality, our church stands with government and non-government organisations in opposing violence in all its forms and promoting healthy relationships.

In the case of an emergency call 000 for police or ambulance

Other national and state wide contacts:

- Domestic Violence Line (NSW Department of Family and Community Services): The DV line is free and staffed 24 hours, 7 days a week. Ph: 1800 65 64 63
- 1800 RESPECT (1800 737 732): National Sexual Assault, Family & Domestic Violence Counselling Line. 24 hours, 7 days a week
- Link2home: A statewide homelessness information and referral telephone service. 24 hours, 7 days a week. Ph: 1800 152 152
- Lifeline: has a national number who can help put you in contact with a crisis service in your State. 24 hours, 7 days a week. Ph: 131 114
- Mensline Australia: Supports men dealing with family and relationship difficulties. 24 hours, 7 days a week. Ph: 1300 78 99 78
- Kids Help Line: Telephone counselling for children and young people. 24 hours, 7 days. Ph: 1800 551 800
- Translating and Interpreting Service: Phone to gain access to an interpreter in your own language. Ph: 131 450

Service providers in our community

In local communities across Australia different organisations work towards the prevention of family and domestic violence and in support of its victims.

Our local community groups and service providers (with contact details):

Flyers available: Yes No

